

ROBERT KOCH COLLOQUIUM 2024

On the Move: Public Health in A Globalized World

23 AND 24 MAY 2024 · LECTURE HALL AND ONLINE

Each year, the Robert Koch Institute, Germany's Public Health Institute, invites leading experts to present and discuss their area of work at the Robert Koch Colloquium. This year's colloquium topic is "On the move: Public Health in a globalized world". Over two days, a series of lectures addresses specific aspects of global mobility of pathogens and people. A final panel discussion with experts treats the implications of increased mobility on Public Health.
